

Job Description – Press Operator

The Press Operator is responsible for the set-up, operation and maintenance of all presses and related production equipment.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Performs standard set-up, maintenance and operation of the press; optimizing press for maximum efficiency, including compliance with equipment specifications, safety and company procedures.
- Reviews and coordinates job requirements with or client specifications to ensure the highest quality work.
- Perform press checks including effective and clear communication with customers and/or sales representatives.
- Helps develop Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) for job-related functions, processes, and/or recommend method efficiencies and process improvements.
- Operates presses and production equipment according to safety policies, procedures and safety rules; including the use of appropriate safety equipment. Maintains a safe working environment at all times.
- Participates in safety training to learn about new equipment and/or supplies.
- Reviews material safety data sheets (MSDS) for products used in work assignments; stores, labels, handles and prepares chemicals for disposal according to state and federal hazardous waste handling regulations.
- Other duties and special projects as assigned.

Qualifications:

- High school diploma and general education degree (GED); or 5 years minimum related experience and/or training; or equivalent combination of education and experience.
- Journeyman level pressman including how to start, prepare and color test printing requirements and knowledge of safety regulations including safe use of chemicals.
- Basic computer skills.
- Komori 40” experience preferred.
- Verbal and written communications to follow safety rules, instructions and SOPs; effectively communicate with employees and customers.
- Reviews all work carefully for completeness and accuracy; pays attention to details.
- Identifies problems and notifies the manager in a timely manner.
- Interpersonal skills to get along and work effectively with others.
- Good mechanical aptitude.
- Ability to work in a team environment; helps and supports all employees.
- Uses self-management skills to plan, organize and prioritize work activities to use time effectively.
- Handles multiple projects simultaneously in a fast-paced environment.

About Consolidated Press:

- Always busy, not seasonal. Plenty of overtime available.
- Profitable for the long term.
- Hiring for long-term with growth opportunities.
- Training available for the right candidates to move into a press operator position
- Independently owned, family atmosphere.

Pre-employment drug screening and background authorization are required (paid for by Company).

Job Type: Full-time

Pay: From $34.50 per hour

Benefits:

- 401(k)
- 401(k) matching
- Dental insurance
- Health insurance
- Health savings account
- Life insurance
- Paid time off
- Vision insurance

Schedule:

- Day shift
- Nightshiftft
- Overtime

Education:

- High school or equivalent (Preferred)

Work Location: One location

To apply: email your resume to jobs@consolidatedpress.com